John A. Ebe

Director

EXPERIENCE

John A. Ebe is a Director in the Chicago office of Sikich Investment Banking where he brings over 19 years of investment banking experience covering a broad range of transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, divestitures, shareholder defense assignments, raising capital in the public and private markets and providing general corporate finance advice.

John has participated in engagements and transactions for client-companies with diverse ownership structures ranging from privately-held, middle-market companies with one or more shareholders, to large, publicly-held companies. Over the course of his career, John has closed approximately 50 transactions. He has advised companies in various industries including automotive, industrial, healthcare, telecommunications and business services.

Prior to joining Sikich John was a Director with the investment banking group at Stout Risius Ross. He was also a Director with LSC Healthcare Partners, an investment banking boutique focused exclusively on healthcare services companies. Prior to LSC, John was a Vice President and founding member of the Mergers & Acquisitions Group at Heller Financial, which focused primarily on private equity firms. Previously, John worked at Robert W. Baird & Co., Inc., ABN AMRO Incorporated, Dean Witter Reynolds and EVEREN Securities assisting publicly-traded and closely-held companies in various transactions.

John is registered with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) as a Series 7 General Securities Representative and a Series 79 Investment Banking Representative.
